Kitsap County Council for Human Rights Meeting Group Agreements

(Established at KCCHR Annual Retreat January 2019 and revised January 2023)

- We agree to prevent cell phone interference during meetings. If we need to keep our cell phone on for personal reasons, we will do our best to prevent it affecting the meeting.
- We agree to have one speaker at a time and to share the air, be mindful of time, and both listen and speak with intention to understand and be understood. We ask for clarification when we need it.
- We agree to allow organic conversation because generative dialogue is part of our collective process.
- We agree to allow quiet time. Moments of silence can help us to reflect and gain understanding.
- We agree to model and support self-care. We advocate for our own and others' authentic participation. We take breaks and attend to our needs.
- We agree to respect our collective and the individuals within it. There are multiple perspectives, world views, and truths present among us and we have a shared accountability to our KCCHR Mission. Our diversity is our strength.
- We agree to learn from history, acknowledge past trends of the KCCHR, and have these inform our growth and direction. We are open to new possibilities.
- Our work together is sacred, and we make the most of it while also beginning and ending our meetings on time. We agree to give notice if we will need to arrive late or leave early. We will do our best to join or leave with minimal disruption.
